SELF-CONFESSED KING OF THIEVES, WHOSE PUPILS, HE DECLARES, STOLE $5,000,000 A YEAR, STARTS UPHEAVAL IN NEW YORK'S UNDERWORLD.

Special Correspondence.

NEW YORK, July 3.—Five million dollars a year, perhaps a little more, so the New York Merchants' Association declares, is the cash value of the loot that has been passing directly or indirectly through the hands of Isadore Rader and his now famous "larceny trust," which has been operating peacefully for at least ten years on the East Side.

This modern Fagin, now in the Tombs, has been the sole professor in a formidable school of vice teaching the fine art of stealing on big scale, aided and abetted by certain first-rank detectives, according to corroborative testimony furnished the district attorney following Rader's astounding confessions.

Working in conjunction with these "school" truck thieves and pickpockets, Rader confesses, big jobbers, auctioneers, trusted dock watchmen, shipping clerks and many women were a part of this gigantic trust, which Rader conducted ostensibly as a respectable business man from his pool and billiard hall on the East Side.

In appearance Isadore Rader is a real Dickens character. He looks just as if he had stepped out of a first edition of "Oliver Twist."

His power has rested chiefly in his ability to avoid arrest and conviction not only of himself but of his confederates, who, like magic, at the will of their chief, have been removed from prison, often without trial and always without sentence.

His pupils followed his bidding with fear and trembling. His authority has been undisputed. All thieves examined by the district attorney since his confessions declare that it was absolutely necessary for any "fence" wishing to do business to "see" Rader before they could hope for protection.

The chief aids to Rader's "scholars" were receiving clerks on the docks and trusted watchmen, who got their "piece" slipped to them in a match box, when they asked for a light, or by other ingenious ways, before turning deaf ears and blind eyes to the truck thieves' operations, which often amounted to $10,000 in a single haul. The booty being disposed of to "fences," auctioneers, jobbers, and the inferior quality of materials were often bartered in small lots to hard-bargaining pushcart vendors at the rate of ten, fifteen and sometimes as high as twenty cents on the dollar.

NEW YORK COPPER GUILTY

NEW YORK, July 3.—Peter J. Duffy, a former police sergeant, was found guilty early this morning by a jury of having accepted money from a Harlem gambler in return for granting immunity from police interference. The jury returned its verdict at 1:30 a. m. after deliberating eight hours.

SUNDAY SCHOOL TO PICNIC

Members of Grace M. E. Classes to Visit Hudson Lake.

Arrangements have been completed by the Sunday school of the Grace M. E. church to hold its picnic at Hudson lake, July 31. Committees will be appointed to take charge of the different events that will make up the day, chief among which will be the ball game and the big basket dinner. A special car will be chartered and it is believed that the largest crowd that has ever attended, owing to the large increase in membership during the past few weeks, will be present.

AT THE MAJESTIC. For the Saturday and Sunday feature the management of the Majestic has secured the famous $50,000 Italian film in three reels entitled "The Palace of Flames."

This is without a doubt one of the greatest productions of the well known Italia studio and was only recently brought to this country. The cast includes that world famed Italian actor, Mons. Zaccanti, ably supported by one of the best dramatic companies now acting before the motion picture camera.

"The Palace of Flames" tells a thrilling and realistic story of Italian love, hate and revenge. A big scene scene occupies almost an entire reel and is said to be one of the most wonderful scenes of the kind ever staged. A scoundrel fires Sir Marny's palace and dies in the flames. Livid tongues of flame leap through the mansion and the occupants rush about frantically. Old Andrew tries to rescue his daughter, but finds she has been carried to safety by her sweet heart.

The Four Bonnelles continue the balance of the week with their highly pleasing musical act. Rose Beckerich and Willard Erhardt have new songs. With good ventilation and improved cooling devices the Majestic continues to be a popular place of summer amusement.
